ITS SANCTUM IN A CIRCUS.

The Phenomenal but Eastly Explained Suc cess of a Juvenile Publication.

A very remarkable newspaper success has been that made by a new weekly publication known as the Children. This child's paper is only four weeks old, but has to-day a circulation running away up into the thousands.

Perhaps the secret of its success lies in the fact that its editorial sanctum is a circus. If there is anything more ettractive to children than a circus it would be difficult to name that attraction, and as the children of New York have simply to send a written request to the proprietor of the Winter Circus at the American Institute in order to be enrolled as subscribers it is no wonder that Mr. Robbins cards have been printed which upon the pay-ment of 10 cents admit the children to the circus, and the American Institute is crowded

NEWS SUMMARY.

Mr. Cox. an Irish M. P., has been clapped in jai under the Crimes act.

The Cotton Exchange rejects a proposition to return to "popum" deliveries.

The Senate receives some big petitions in favor of an international copyright law.

Secretary Pairchlid decides to pay the November salaries of the Castle Garden employees.

A fire in a Philadelphia drv-goods and millinery store causes a loss over $1,000,000.

Mrs. Andrew Westley Masters, of Newburg, N. Y., gives birth to triplets, all boys.

Senator Frye makes a tariff speech and shakes his list in the faces of his Southern colleagues.

Speaker Carlisle is going to spend a week or so at Fortress Monroe before he returns to his duties.

The Methodist preachers of Baitimore make a cass about the gift sent by the President to the

The Polo League has decided to disband for want

Another painful operation is to be performed on he Crown Prince's throat to remove the dead car-nlage.

Barnum threatens to take his big show to Europe

David Whitney, the last of the three witnesses of the iruth of the "Book of Mormon," is dying t Richmond, Mo.

at Richmond, Mo.

The celltors of the Yale Literary Magazine reject the Board just elected by the Junior Class, which persists in its choice.

Warren R. Hedden, who is supposed to have shot timself in his shop in Washington street last week, died in St. Vincent's Hospital.

A cash deficit of $350,000 has been discovered in the Treasury of Manitoba. The Government doesn't know what to do with it.

Charles G. Government of Manitoba.

Charles G. Garrison, of Camden, N. J., i pointed the successor of Joel Parker on the preme Court bench of New Jersey.

The Weit, the "Beifast Spider," knocks out foning Miller, the "Omaha Bantam," at Minne-spolis, in seven hotly contested rounds.

Prof. Agassiz, who has arrived at Calumet, say says that the fire in the mines of the Calumet and Hecla Company will be subdued in a few days.

The General Term of the Supreme Court say that 'Professor' De Leon, who was sent to prison for fiteen years by Judge Gildersleeve, must serve his time.

Providence has a mild "baby bunting" case, Miss Clara E. Goff being the plaintiff, and Voiney W. Mason the defendant. The jury gives the lady $4,000 damages.

The police captains give their seventh annua dinner at Delmonico's. Rx-Mayors Grace, Wickham and Edson, Commodore Gerry, Recorder Smyth and numerous other local notabilities are among the great.

among the guests,

Masked burgiars, who kill the cashier of the bank at Limestone, L. T., after attempting to rob the safe, are pursued by citizens, who shoot down one of the robbers, lynch the leader of the gang and lock up the other two who are captured.

The members' monthly reception will occu

An afternoon medical talk was given at the build-

Cornelia Van Auken and Mr. Coward will recite, a violin solo will be given by Miss Catlin, a song by Miss Henry and Ar. Turnure, a 'cello selection by Mr. Henry, recttation by Miss Craven, comic song by Mr. Henreliand banjo selections by Messra, Wright and Coming Events.

James G. Hichards, of Yonkers, who went to Baltimore for the winter, died in Baltimore of consumption yesterday. Mr. Richards was clerk in the law offices of Prime & Burns, lawyers, of West-chester County. He was a stepson of Railroad Detective Gore.

Reception of the Thirteenth's Drum Corps.

The sixth annual reception, concert and drill of the drum and bugic corps of the Thirteenth Regi-

The story of " A Still Hunt in New York's Rotten Row," by Fotice Capt. Reilly, of the "gitt-edge district," will appear in to-morrow's Even-

No One Need Fear a Cough

among the guests.

on him.

daily with delighted children.

CITY BALLROOMS CROWDED.

MANY ASSOCIATIONS ENTERTAIN HOSTS OF FRIENDS.

President Murray Receives Statesmen and Their Families at Everett Hall-Morning Stars Peep Out at Night-James H. Walk. er's Friends Have a Dance-Reception of the Olive Club at Irving Hall.

ROWDS attended the third annual ball of the John A. Dawkins As sociation at Everett Hall last night. Presi. dent John K. Murray. with a red, red rose in the buttonhole of his satin-lined dress coat and a cheerful smile on his face, stood in the early part of the evening near the door and tried to keep count of how many friends he has. To-day his right hand is wrapped up in bandages in consequence of the number of times it was shaken.

He explained to THE EVENING WORLD reporter that the John J. O'Brien to whom he introduced him as the Vice-President of the association was not the naughty Republican Baby Bunting, and that the duties of Sergeant-at-Arms John T. Gavin were purely ornamental and that for such purposes Mr. Gavin was the right man in the right place. Mr. O'Brien mentioned that his fellow. officers were Wm. H. Butler, Recording Secretary: John H. Tienken, Treasurer, and Wm. H. Murphy, Financial Secretary. As for the gentlemen who managed the ball, he handed this list to the reporter:

handed this list to the reporter:

Floor Manager, William P. Feeney; Assistants, Thos. F. Waters and William Quinn. Floor Committee—Peter Boyle, James T. Costello, James J. Jackson, James H. Hyland, Daniel F. Haley, Joseph Baker, George Gleason, Oliver B. Dowd, George W. James, Michael Glimartin, Thomas J. Connoily, Bart J. Lynch, Patrick H. Nann, R. M. Dunlesvy, John J. Maher, Wm. J. Brennan, Richard J. McNamee, Peter F. Long, Timothy Quinn, George H. Tienken, Hyman Cohen, Thos. J. Gliroy, Timothy D. Sullivan. Reception Committee—James H. Driscoll, Chairman; Wm. H. Butler, Thomas Donohue, Thomas Moore, Patrick H. Callahan, John K. Murray, Fred Stradder, James J. Keeley, John H. Tienken, Wm. H. Murphy, Patrick Kelley, Thomas F. Hyland, Frank Fitzpatrick, John J. O'Brien, Thaddeus F. Connell, John T. Gavin, Paul Viana, Patrick T. Lynch, Michael Curley, I. J. Peoples, Wm. J. Quinian.

Among the many guests were;

Among the many guests were; Among the many guests were;

Ex-Coroner Kennedy, Alderman and Mrs. Gavin, ex-Assemblyman Thomas F. Maher. Miss Mamie
Smith, Miss Sarah McKenna, Ed W. Dawkins,
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fulton, Mrs. D. O. Sulliran, John S. Sullivan, Miss Sullivan, George S.
Brown, Miss Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ahero,
Miss Mamie Quinn, Miss M. Long, Miss Mamie
Brown, Miss Annie McIntyre, Mrs. James Burke,
Mrs. James Driscoll, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mahonr, William Hodge, Miss Ella Jones, Mrs. John
A. Dawkins, Mrs. Frank Fitzpatrick, Miss M.
Nann, Miss Martha Quinn, Miss Ella Long, Mrs. Jsmes
Burke.

MORNING STARS OUT AT NIGHT. The annual ball of Morning Star Lodge, No. 40, took place at the Germania Assembly Rooms last night. The arrangements were in charge of the following gentlemen:

in charge of the following gentlemen:
Floor Manager, John C. Mochring; Assistant,
Mary Eckhardt. Floor Committee—Otto Dengler,
Henry Mock, W. Spahn, Charles Scher, Christopher Osterlog, J. Schultheiss, Valentine Grimu, Minna Meizing, Christine Seitz, Ida Keil, Agnes Heinke, Margaretha Westrich. Reception Committee—Henry Leonhardt, Chairman; Caroline
Stuespi, Anna Leonhardt, Anna Meth, M. Bisdorf, Therese Schoett, Anna Bisdorf, Katherine Weiss,
Margaret Kemmiein, Anna S. Engel. Door Committee—Charles Stumpf, Chairman; Anton Buenau,
C. Schoett, H. Bisdorf, G. Sauer, D. Westrich, A.
Deile, C. Kroetz, E. Keil, H. Roupp, G. Mauer.
The following ladies were present:

The following ladies were present : The following ladies were present:

Miss Agnes O'Brien, Mrs. Harry Douth, Miss
Pauline Rapp, Miss Lizzle Becker, Mrs. F. Altman, Miss Lena Ridt, Miss Josie Meyer, Miss Mamie
O'Brien, Mrs. Dann, Miss Lizzle Schopp, Mrs. M.
Davis, Miss Lizzle I.ansmith, Miss Emma Pfaff,
Mrs. Anna Zahn, Miss Minnie Meizhig, Miss M.
Keil, Mrs. H. Buchner, Miss Maggie Biumer, Miss
Bessle Lansmith, Miss Lille Meinski, Miss Carrie Westrich, Miss Heineck, Mrs. Edinger, Miss Lena Edinger, Miss Amelia Einsfeld, Miss M. Beadorf,
Miss Maggie Brunner and Mrs. John C. Edit,

THE JAMES R. WALKER ASSOCIATION. One of the pretty entertainments of last evening was that of the James H. Walker Association at Irving Hall. President Mon-aghan took so good care of his guests that it is reported that three other rival associations ant to elect him President. The officers of the association were:

the association were:

James A. Monaghan, President; Charles Krieger and John Hagen, Vice-Presidents; Antony Strassner, Recording Secretary; John J. Farrell, Financial Secretary; Joseph Krieger, Treasurer; Samuel Keatley, Marshal. Floor Manager, Ed J. Cunningham; Assistant, Chris Geltzenauer. Floor Committee—Ed F. Cunningham, Charles Krieger, John Hagen, Mike McManus, James A. Monaghan, Joe Slebert, John J. Farrell. Reception Committee—John Campbell, Chairman; James E. Diamond, Autony Strassner, M. McCallion, Joseph Krieger, James E. Taornhill.

Among the many quests present were.

Among the many guests present were : Among the many guests present were:
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Collegan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Mulbacher,
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker, Mr. and Mrs. John McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Laug, Miss Neilie Harding, Miss
May Ryan, Miss Rosa Cunningham, Miss Rosa
Lawrence, Miss Sosie; Smith. Miss Neilie Duffy,
Miss Aince Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy, Miss Kate Sullivan, Miss
Neilie Ryan, Miss Rachael Leddler, Mrs. Neilie
Young, Miss Mamie Ward, Miss Julia Ward, Miss Katle McGliboon, Miss May Quinn, Miss Annie Langhoed.

THE OLIVE CLUB RECEPTION. The fourth annual reception of the Olive Club occurred at Webster Hall last evening. The arrangements had been made and were Carried out by:

Andrew J. Tierney, President: Reuben Haggerty, Vice-President; James P. McDonaid, Trassurer; Michael J. Callahan, Fanancial Secretary; Robert Southern, Hecording Secretary; D. Joseph Foley, Marshal. Floor Manager, James C. Breelin; Assistants, Joseph Braitwalth and Fred Jerome. Floor Committee—Roderick Green, Thomas F. Collins, Patrics J. Maioney, Jeremiah A. Murphy, Richard J. Walsh. Reception Committee—James M. Caristy, Chairman; Peter J. Wallace, James P. McDonaid, William Rocce, Michael J. Gallahan, Reuben Haggerty, Arrangement Committee—Thomas F. Walsh, Chairman; D. Joseph Foley, Robert Southern.

Among the guests were:

Miss Maggie Green, Miss Tessie Powers, Miss C. nglander, Miss Mamie McBarrett, Miss Annie Mc Carthy, Miss M. Gruber, Miss Mamie Learey, Miss Maggie Crontn, Miss Josie McDermott, Miss Neille

Walah, Miss Mamie Shanton, Miss Annie Graham, Miss May Malouey, Miss Sadie Graham. Miss Josie Helobel, Miss Carrie Weelan, Miss May Helohel, Miss Lillle Colpe, Miss Katle Packenhann, Miss Louisa Giley, Miss Rosetta Pakenhann, Miss Vinnie Tierney, Miss K. Madison, Miss Neltie Green, Miss Jennie Bresiln.

THE PATRICK J. PARRELLY BALL The second annual ball of the Patrick J. Farrelly Association was held at Turn Hall, last evening. Following are the names of the officers:

Fioor Manager, Louis C. Hamel; Assistant, Joseph Davis; Standard Bearer, Patrick J. Farreily. Floor Committee—Wm. McCormack, Chairman; Edward D. Lonergan, Michael F. Englist, John Foley, William Elsenman, fr., Patrick J. Hazgerty, David Porter, George Cusick, John P. Boyle, William Gleeson, John Stubenball.

Others present were:

Miss Annie Kohlback, Mrs. Thomas Murtha, Mrs. Robert English, Miss May Cook, Miss Annie Goebel, Miss T. Flannigan, Miss Katie Barnes, ex-Alderman Fickey, Miss Jennie Cohen, Miss Katie Davis, Miss Libbie Webb, Miss Emma Burns, Miss May Eckert, Miss Maggle Pitzpatrick, Miss Annie Fagan, Miss Mangle Pitzpatrick, Miss Annie Fagan, Miss Mangle Pitzpatrick, Miss Annie Fagan, Miss Maggle Cashin, Miss May Eckert, Miss Maggle Cashin, Miss Maggle Cashin, Miss Delila Farelly, Mrs. M. Fedre, Miss Annie Doltman, Miss Mamie Coyle, Miss Emma Campbell, Miss Katle Witt, Miss Nellie Walsh, Miss Fiora Beaver, Miss Henrietta Lynott, Miss Emma Freymuller, Frank Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Kassebaum, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Foley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Hole, George Fibher, Miss Fisher, Peter Shradey, John T. Halpen, William Hoyle, William Mortimer, Dick Hanft, Charles Ball, Joseph Barnes, John Keenan; representatives from the Stumps Light Guard, La Moulte Ciub, Universal Bowling Club, Martin's Light Guard, Lafayette Social Club and the Twenty-first Ward Musketeers. Others present were:

TURNERS IN MASKS, More than fifteen hundred members are re-corded on the books of the Central Turn Verein, and they seemed to be most of them at the Lexington Avenue Opera-House last night at the masquerade ball of the associa-

It was impossible to march and almost imossible to dance, and when a waltzer got a quiet corner he was happy. It was the intention for the Prince and Princess Carnival to lead a grand parade, but it had to be abandoned.

doned.

The club is going to build a large clubhouse in East Sixty-Seventh street, just off Third avenue. On the top floor will be a ballroom 100 feet square. The second floor is to be used as a gymnasium.

Here are some names of enests noted: Here are some names of guests noted :

Prince Carnival, Otto Lowin: Princess Carnival, Miss Lena Mueller; assisted by Charles C. Niess, Philip Rupp, Jr., Max Witte, Louis A. Becker, John M. Kohlmeyer, Carl May, Albert Kuntz, Charles Rosenkranz, R. Dworsack, Ed Shirmer, Albert Russerseman

ECHOES OF THE BALLBOOM. The Harry F. Shields Association had its inaugural reception at Tammany Hall.

The Deutschen Apotheker Verein had a ball at the Teutonia Assembly Rooms.

The second annual ball of the Volunteer Firemen's Sons' Association occurred at Nilsson Hall.

OWEN BRUEN EXPLAINS.

He Says He Is Not a Whye Chief or Even a Subordinate Whyo.

To the Editor of The Evening World: I desire to contradict at the very earliest noment the statements made in your issue of this evening regarding myself. In the first place I want you to contradict the statement that I ever have been "up the river." You mean to have the public believe that I was in the penitentiary, which is entirely false. I was never in the penitentiary in my life and never intend to be. Now, regarding the shooting on Park street to which you refer, you do not state it fairly. You say that for some reason or other the case was dropped. Well, the some reason or other the case was dropped. Well, the some reason or other was because I was innocent and the Justice knew it. I am earning a decent living, working and living with my father in this city, and no police officer or anybody else can deny this. I know they are all down on me now because I told the truth about the plot for Driscoll's escape, but let them hold an investigation and they will see that the men that are making all the talk about me are the ones that were in the plot. Nice police officers and wardens they are, who seem to have nothing else to do but to try and injure me. Just let them hold an investigation and they will see whether Warden Walsh or myself have the best character. All this talk about my being a "Whyo chief" is ridiculous. I am not a Whyo. People who imagine that I am such a terrible creature as the Warden paints me, and who think me to be a big six-footed, villainous looking fellow, may be surprised to know that I am a boy, twenty-two years of age, and that I live at home with my parents at No. 31 Park street in this city, where I can be seen at any time.

I am living a decent, respectable life, and which you refer, you do not state it can be seen at any time.

I am living a decent, respectable life, and I want my name kept out of any of these stories. Hoping that you will do me the justice of publishing this, I remain, New York, Jan. 23. Owen Bruen,

EASTERN BOULEVARD CLUB'S BALL.

Good Time in Store for Harlem's Great

The Eastern Boulevard Club's invitation ball will be held at the Lexington Avenue Opera-House to-morrow night. Cappa has arranged the order of dance and will furnish the music. The opera-house will be handsomely decorated.

This is the first reception in the nature of a public ball given by the club since 1872. It will be a reunion and handshaking affair.

The club is not a political one at all, yet
many of its members hold public office.
The Committee of Arrangements is composed of Edward Atkinson, William Henry Knox, James P. Marren, George Hoeffer and E. B. Lamar. Nearly two hundred members of the club are on the Reception Committee, some of the prominently known being Judge R. B. Martine, Col. John R. Fellows, Fred Thileman, jr., Robt. McGinnis, Thomas P. Gilroy, Senator J. A. Cantor and N. P.

> Baptized by Proxy. [From the Harredsburg (Ky.) Democrat, 1

Two brothers, not living more than fitty miles from Harrodsburg, look so much alike that when one of them joined the Baptist Church and was about to bel immersed he found that he had no clothes suitable for the occasion, as he expressed it, and paid his brother 10 cents to be captized in his place, which was done. This story seems incredi-ble, but it is nevertheless the fact, and would bever have been found out had not one of the brothers gotten angry and gave it away.

A SAFE, sure cure for coughs and colds, ADAMSON'S BOTANIC BALSAM. KINSMAN, 25th st., 4th ave.

THE SPY'S REWARD.

"My dear," said Miss Patty Pry, "Pm morally certain that something's wrong !" Little Miss Wrinkfield looked up and began to flutter all over like a frightened bird.

Something wrong?" she repeated. "Oh, Miss Patty, what can possibly be wrong?" Mrs. Wrinkfield was a pretty little blonde, with great, surprised-looking blue eyes, a deprecating expression of face and a voice soft and sweet.

Miss Patty Pry was a tall, grenadier-like female, with a suspicion of a beard, high theek-bones, and elbows that wore holes through all dresses, so sharp and uncompromising were they.

" My dear," said Miss Patty, lowering her voice to a husky whisper, "it looks suspicious. Wrinkfield is a great deal too willing for you to go home and spend the night with your mother."

"He thought it would be a pleasant little change for me," asserted Mrs. Wrinkfield, edgerly.

"Exactly," snarled Miss Patty. "And it'll be a pleasant little change for him too."

'I don't understand you," said Mrs. Wrinkfield, with a bewildered look.

'Oh, you little goose," cried Miss Patty. "He's going to give a bachelor party. He means to invite his friends and turn your house inside out. That's his idea, you may depend upon it. I know for a positive certainty that Dollabee has received an order for a hundred oysters, a dozen of champagne and a tursen of lobster salad. For to-night, my dear. I wondered who it could possibly be from, and now I know. And that, my dear," with fearful emphasis, "explains your husband's kind willingness to let you go to your mother's for the night. Ah—h—h! They're all alike, these men."

Mrs. Wrinkfield burst into tears.

"I won't go!" she cried. "I'll stay at home."

"Don't do that, my dear," said Miss Pry.

home."
"Don't do that, my dear," said Miss Pry.
"Pack your bag and go with the baby. Who knows when you may again have an opportunity? And I'll make it my business to watch Wrinkfeld."
"But how?"

watch Wrinkfield."
"But how?" questioned the young wife.
"Just give me the key of the back stairway door." said Miss Pry. "I'll secrete myself in the china closet that opens out of the dining-room. I'll listen, I'll find out

SPORTS OF TRACK AND RING.

IS BILLY MYERS THE COMING LIGHT-WEIGHT FIGHTER?

Entries for the Manhattan's Sixty-Yard Race -Jake Shaefer Has to Hustle-Profes sional Artists at the Suburban Harriers' Concert-Skating at South Cove-A Ten Round Fight for a Gold Watch.

recently defeated Harry Gilmore, is said to be a wonder. In a letter to a friend in this city, Parson Davies writes.

subscribers it is no wonder that Mr. Robbins has secured a very large circulation for it.

This is not the only means which has been taken by the management of the Winter Circuis to interest the children in its success, for Mr. Robbins has offered prizes amounting to $10 in gold for the school children under fourteen years of age who make the first, second and third largest number of English words out of the letters which make the mane "Frank A. Robbins."

Already a large number of answers to this puzzle have been received at the circus, and it is hard at the present time to say whether the school children of New York are interested most in the dancing elephants, the funny clowns or the Robbins puzzle. School cards have been printed which upon the pay-"Myers can lick any AQ light-weight in America. His friends are trying to get on a match for him with Daly, of Boston. Myers is about twentyfour years old, strongly built and a terrific hitter. He hit Sparrow Golden with a sixounce glove, closing his eye and knocking him down. Golden said he never was hit so hard. Myers is a very hard man to get at. It was not a chance blow that knocked Gilmore out. In the first few seconds of the fight Myers let fly left and right, missing Gilmore's chin by only an inch. On the next attempt he landed. Myers can be matched against any light-weight, skin-tight or small against any light-gloves, for big money."

The 60-yard race in the Manhattan Ath letic Club's games at the Garden on Saturday evening should be a close one. Such men as Adams, Copland, Westing and Sherrell, of Yale, are entered for it.

Billy Sexton says business must be mighty bad in St. Louis when Jake Schaefer has to put his sticks in his bag and go out and rustle for a living.

Professional artists are to appear at the Suburban Harriers' concert early in February. An attempt will be made to make money enough to have the prizes to be given for road races shortly after of unusual value.

Walter Halligan, the feather-weight ama teur, who has now developed into a likely light-weight, is to meet N. O'Brien, of Phila-delphia, in an eight-round contest for a medal

The Orange Athletic Club, of New Jersey, which has been giving bi-monthly indoor athletic meetings all this winter, has a membership now of over 1,000. It proposes to build a first-class einder path in the spring. This club is a very social as well as athletic one, and pool and bowling tournaments have been in progress always to contract the spring. been in progress almost continually of late. The annual ball, which takes place on Feb. 10, is expected to be the affair of the county. Three of the best bands in this neighborhood will be in attendance. A new tug-of-war team, 600 pounds, has been doing some good practice of late, and hopes to win some prizes for Orange at the Manhattan meeting.

The National Amateur Skating Association, on account of a lot of snow on the ice at Greenwood Lake, will hold its quarter-mile and one-mile straightaway races on South Cove, Jersey City, this afternoon. Visitors should take Liberty Street Ferry at 3 o'clock or 3.30, and get off at Communipaw. The ten-mile race will probably be held on Wednesday or Thursday, at Fleetwood, or possibly on Van Courtland Lake.

Sam Montgomery, the skater, figures it out that Craft really covered 28 miles 768 feet in that twenty-five mile race at Fleetwood last that twenty-nye mile race at Freetwood last Saturday night. It seems the settees which formed the inside boundary of the track got moved so the laps were lengthened to 838 feet each, and as there were supposed to be seven laps to the mile, or 175 in all, a little arithmetic shows the calculation to be cor-rect. The time made is about twenty-six minutes behind the record.

Charley McCarthy, the amateur feather. weight championship winner, and "Slim" Collins, another amateur, had a ten-round go for a gold watch in this city on Sunday morning. It was declared a draw, but McCarthy was said to have had a shade the best

The story of " A Still Hunt in New York's Rotten Row," by Police Capt. Relity, of the "gittedge district," will appear in to-morrow's Even-ING WORLD.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Surprised. was agreeably surprised last Saturday evening at her residence, when her friends began to assemble there. They gathered around her and offered their congratulations on the anniversary of her forty-second birthday. Among the throng of well-

Walker.
At a conference of the new committees of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association, in the new building near the Grand Central Depot, President Elbott B. Mouroe, of the New York City Y. M. C. A., occupied the chair and W. L. Amerman read a paper on "The Model Committeeman." Supt. W. It. Turner, of the New Haven road, and General Superintendent C. W. Bradley, of the West Shore, were present. Plans to increase the railroad branen membership to 5,000 during less were discussed. wishers were Henry C. Bang, President of the Hoboken Turtle Club; James J. Flemming, J. D. Phillips, M. Bayeradorfer, Miss Matthews, Mrs. Wilson, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Monot, Miss Porter, Mrs. Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Benton. Miss Horion rendered several whisting solos with fine effect, and Miss Eva Phillips, the tenyear-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, gave a plano recital. Entertainment, Young People's Literary Society, Thurch of the D-sciples, Jan. 26. Annual reception Alpha Circle, West End Hall, Jan. 25.

Too Good to Keep.

[From the Omaha Bee.] It was in the parlor of the nobby little cottage owned and occupied by a newly married couple.
Do you smoke, Mr. Jeffrey?" said the lady to a caller, and without waiting for an answer she brought out an elegant plush-covered box filled with supero "tufera," "Take two or three of them, please," she rattled on, unmindful of gathering frowns. "A Carlstmas present, I'll wager," exclaimed Mr. J. "Yes; they are delightful. My nusband told me to treat friends liberally with them, as they are too good to keep.

Refined Sarcasm.

[From the Pittsburg Chronicle.] ent," remarked Squildig. "Wby ?" asked McSwilligen.
"One of the new fast cruisers is to be called the Philadelphia."

RIKER & SON, 383 6th ave., charge no more for their emulsion of CoD LIVER OIL with pepsin and quining than they do for the plain emulsion, viz., 75c, per bottle. Sold almost everywhere. "a"

She knew she was a soft-hearted, easily de-luded little thing, and she had a great respect for Miss Patty Pry's discrimination and judg-

But her conscience pricked her a little when Wrinkfield took her to the station and bought oranges for the baby and little Min-riis.

they can get Right's Expectationant. Always insist having Riser's and you are positively signs of perfect isotaction. Solid simulatively where. Half-inch buttles cents. WM.R. RIGHT & SON, Druggists and Manufac-ring Chemists, 333 Oh ave. Established 2 years. "." the secrets of the whole tribe and generation And I,ll tell you every single word

She would have confessed all if Miss Patty had not been there to see her off,
"I shall count every moment until you come back." Mary, said Wrinkfield, with a farewell kiss. I hear.'
"But—would that be honorable?" hesitated Mrs. Wrinkfield.
"Honorable," dolefully repeated Miss Pry. "My poor dear, don't you know that us women must avail ourselves of every possible means of keeping even with those tyrants the men?"
"I suppose so," said Mrs. Wrinkfield, restlessly, twining and intertwining her fingers.
"But I never could have believed that Charlie would treat me so."

farewell kiss.

"Ah—h—h! the deceiver!" hissed Miss Pry, on the other side.

"Because you know," added the unconscious Benedict, "it's so lonely for a fellow to sit down to tea with you and the minikins

"And oysters and champagne," hysterically giggled Miss Pry, so close to Mrs. Wrink-field's face that every word seemed to tickle her ear-druins. "Oh, yes, dreadfully lonely. "But I never could have believed that Charlie would treat me so."

"They're all alike," said Miss Pry, "and we single women are a great deal the best off. I would not marry, not if forty men were to go down on their knees to me at once. No, indeed! I value my own independence a deal too much for that!"

And Miss Patty tossed her head with a smiff, half of triumph, half of disdain.

Mrs. Wrinkfield gave her the key.

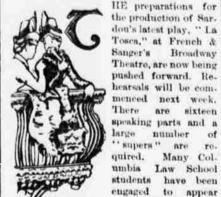

She knew she was a soft hearted, easily de-Ha! ha! ha!"
And so Mrs. Wrinkfield set off on her ten-

mile journey,
mile journey,
Miss Pry hurried back, and letting, herself on the sly into the back staircase door, crept up into the dining-room, and ensconsed herself comfortably in the china closet.

"I shan't be disturbed. And I shall have an opportunity to convince Mary Wrinkfield that her husband is a villain."
Which possibility gave Miss Patty Pry a good deal of solid satisfaction, considering what a devout Christian she had always pro-fessed to be. "I'm early," she said to herself, as the

COLUMBIA STUDENTS TO BE SUPERS FOR MISS DAVENPORT IN "LA TOSCA."

Hotel Experiences and Sketches of a Young Lady Who Would Be an Actress-Wayne Ellis Concludes Not to Challenge Lilli Lehmann-Falry Tales of Receipts at Theatres-New Plays on the Roards.

Theatre, are now being pushed forward. Rehearsals will be commenced next week. There are sixteen speaking parts and a large number of Supers " are quired, Many Col. umbia Law School students have been engaged to appear as guards and court gentlemen. The young men seemed highly elated at the engagement, and the idea of considering the employment derogatory to their dignity appears not to have worried them at all. Bring the whole college down," said the lady who engaged them for Miss Davenport. "We want all we can get. Miss Davenport is anxious to have people around her who won't tear her costumes and make themselves obnoxious." There will be 120 people upon the stage at one time Dazien is to make the costumes, which will be designed from plates sent by Sardon. This is a fact worth chronicling, as it will stop the torrents of silly gush about imported costumes, dresses made after years of patient research in the Louvre or the British Museum, and all the rest of it, which pre-cedes an important production. Theodore Bjorksten, the gentle little tenor who appears at the Hofmann concerts, is to arrange the music of "La Tosca." It is expected that the drama will run for about twelve weeks.

Miss Alice King Hamilton, the young soci ety woman who "would be an actress," returned from Boston yesterday, where she left the "She" Commany. Miss Hamilton took no maid with her. She made her first acquaintance with "cheap" hotels, out of which she says she derived mere amusement would be an actress," rewhich she says she derived mere amusement than nourishment. She came to New York hungry for palatable food Miss Hamilton has made some clever sketches of "She," It appears that the other night Miss Loie Fuller's wig came off on the stage, being torn from her head by one of the men, Miss Fuller took the mishap very good-naturedly, and Miss Hamilton has a sketch of the occur. and Miss Hamilton has a sketch of the occur rence. She has also pictured Mr. Wilton Lackaye "with" his calves and "without" them. She says that "She" is playing to enormous houses. Miss Hamilton is negotiating at present for another engagem She is certainly too pretty to appear as a hag, her role in "She."

Robert E. Graham, of "Little Tycoon" fame, has been engaged to play Marguerite in the burlesque of "Faust."

Wayne Ellis, after announcing his inten-tion of challenging Mme. Lili Lehmann to outsing Mme. Biro de Marion at Steinway Hall on the occasion of the latter's first con-Hall on the occasion of the latter's first concert there, has evidently come to the conclusion that discretion is the better part of valor. "I've decided." said he, "to wait until Mme, Biro de Marion has appeared before I issue a challenge. You see it is better, I think, not to antagonize, don't you?" Decidedly, when the person antagonized happens to be so formidable and so deservedly popular as Mme. Lill Lehmann. You are wise in your generation, Mr. Wayne Ellis.

Postal cards are now scattered broadcast from out-of-town theatres with news of the receipts of those houses during a given time. It is time that managers began to realize that people listen to these stories of receipts as they would to the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen or Grimm, perhaps with ian Andersen or Grimm—perhaps with a rifle less interest. Havlin's Theatre in Cin-innati declares that in twenty weeks the An afternoon medical talk was given at the building resterday by Dr. C. C. Rice, the subject being "The Lungs and Throat and the Care of Them."

The next concert at the Railroad Men's Building, Jan. 26, will be given under the direction of Mr. James Stokes, by a number of amateurs. Miss Cornelia Van Auken and Mr. Coward will rectie, a violin solo will be given by Miss Catina, a song by the state of the st that in three months the receipts have averaged $5,346.25 per week. Hem! again.

Randall, the booking agent, received two Randall, the booking agent, received two facetious letters yesterday. One came from Kansas City, with regard to Mrs. Potter's engagement there. The manager, after discussing terms, concluded: "Arrange it so that I can get three meals a day and pay my bills out of the engagement." The other letter came from Chipnewa Falls, Wis, and was written with a pencil. "Excuse the pencil." said this letter, "but it's so cold that my ink is frozen."

The Boston Ideal Opera Company sang "Carmen" at the Fifth Avenue Taeatre last night, Mlle. Zelie de Lussan appearing in the title rôle. The young woman was delightfully piquante and chic as the coquettish cigarette girl, and she sang the part very pleasingly. Miss Helen Dudley Campbell, who made such a good impression in "Martha." sustained it last night. The paintul element of the opera was W. H. Clark, who as Escamillo, was sometimes out of tune. as Escamillo, was sometimes out of time.
The popular "Toreador" song suffered. The chorus last night was excellent, the orchestra did capital work and the house was comfortably filled.

Miss Jeffreys-Lewis appeared in "La Belle Russe" at the Windsor Theatre last night. She will subsequently play Stephanie in "Forget-Me-Not" and Clothilde in "Fer-nande." Miss Lewis had a cordial recepment will be given at the armory, Hanson place and Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, to-morrow even-

Miss Annie Pixley, at the Fourteenth Street Theatre in "The Deacon's Daughter," was as annusing as ever. Oliver and Kate Byron in "The Inside Track" at the Grand Opera-House were among old friends. Dockstader's burlesque on Steele Mackaye's system of act-ing was extremely lively. burlesque on Steele Siacas, ing was extremely lively.

clock in the adjoining room struck 4. " I shall have a long time to wait. But it won't do to risk arriving too late. It never does to risk anything in this world."

At 6 Mr. Wrinkfield came home to his tea, and drank it alone; Miss Patty had to recede into a most uncomfortable angle to avoid being discovered by Barbara, the deft little aid, as she tripped to and fro with the table furniture.

"But it won't be for long," thought Miss Patty Pry.
"The guests will soon begin to Barbara put coal on the fire, hung up the earth brush and withdrew. Mr. Wrinkfield lighted his cigar, and began ske and read, with his slippered feet on to smoke and read, with his slippered feet on the fender. Miss Pry regarded him intently through the crack of the door.

Miss Pry regarded him intently through the crack of the door.

'Isn't he going to change his coat or dress himself up?" she asked herself. "Upon my word he's taking matters very coolly." Seven o'clock struck—8 o'clock—9 o'clock—10 o'clock and still no company arrived.

Miss Pry began to fidget fearfully in her cramped up little den, but still Mr. Wrinkfield read composedly on, turning leaf after leaf with a serenity that was aggravating in the highest degree to Miss Patty Pry.

NEWS ABOUT THE THEATRES. Poole's Theatre last night, and it pleased the audience. "Her Atonement," at H. R. Jacoba's Third Avenue Theatre, drew an enormous audience. The melodrama is extremely popular.

PICKED UP ON THE WEST SIDE.

The Hard-Tack Club give a ball Feb. 1. Deal & Hard sell groceries near the river. Moneypenny will dye for a consideration. Joseph Lips puts the finish on silk goods. Seaman is a shipper, Hirt a surgeon and Hotupp ells wet goods.

" Domenico Del Brasse-Try Me Once," is the sign of a Canal street barber, Doubleday, who calls himself "the little painter, " does susiness in Hudson street.

L'ABBE CONSTANTIN AT WALLACK'S.

It is a very pleasant thing in these bustling days of melodrama and sensationalism to go into the theatre and see a pretty postoral play, which leaves your emotions (if you have any) in a state of exquistic lethargy and shows you virtue unalioyed with the faintest speck of vice,

"L'Abbo Constantin" at Wallack's does this and although I cannot agree with the girt seated behind me, who declared that it was "shockingly good," I am obliged to say that the hero would have been more acceptable had he been a trifle less scraphic, and the heroine more comprehensible with a spice of wickedness about her composition.

I suppose that it is due to the perversity of huma. nature that the charming scene of Longueval, with its delightful foliage, its wonderfully dometle bousekeeper and quaint old pastor, was at times monotonous. I am ashained to say that the characters in the play were too good for me. 1 sighed for just a wee dramatic situation and just breeze of excitement.

"L. 'Abbé Constantin " is as placid as a lake a summer day. Not a ripple appears to disturb its surface, and you will marvel as I do that such a play should be French. When Miss Cynthia Ray and Mrs. Richard Scott appeared in act 1 as rich Americans, with plenty to say for themselves, my spirits went no. O Two to take the dear old. Abbe in-bless his dear heart. should have been rejoiced if they had done this in the interests of excitement, but they didn't. Miss Ray fell in love with the Abbe's sturid wooden acpnew, and at the end of the play the two were engaged, after a course of true love of an extreme-

At one time I imagined that the Abbé was going to acknowledge some fearful sins of his youth, be cause I saw the word "confession" on the programme. Not a bit of it. The confession was simply that of Suzanne's love for Jean, and it was unnecessary. All my hopes of excitement were thus dashed to the ground. When act 3 began I was trying to persuade myself that dramatic sur ations were a mistake, and pretty, pastoral plays quite the thing.

The love of Suzanne and Jean ought to be suffcient for anybody. The terrible drawback was the fact that Suzanne had 20,000,000 francs, which, of course, would frighten any sensible young man as it frightened the good Jean.
"L'Abbé Constantin" was a great success in Parts. As a relief from the inevitable naughtiness of productions there, this play must, indeed, have come pleasantly. But we are not accustomed to an exclusive diet of spice here, and consequently do not need as much relief.

John Gilbert, in the title rôle, was exquisitely natural. Mr. T. W. Robertson was surpraingly good as Count Paul de Lavardens, and Mrs. Maurio Barrymore, as his mother, was the feminine suc dese of the evening. Mr. W. T. Lovell, an in portation, has not sufficient force as yet. He slood with his back to the audience and was generally awkward. Mrs. Abbey looked pretty as Suzanne. The other rôles were filled by Mrs. Louisa Eldridge, Miss Enid Leglie, Miss Kate Bartlett, Mme. Por isi, Harry Edwards, Charles Dodsworth and Miss Entertained by Harlom Ladies. The Ladies' Social Union, of Grace Episcopal Church, Harlem, gave its annual reception last night, at the Woodward, in East One Hundred and Sixteenth street. The entertainment consisted of Saltenth street. The entertainment consisted of plane soles, readings and recitations. During the evening a collation was served. Among the dancers the following merry-makers were noticed: Miss L. Woodward, Miss M. French, Miss M. Ella, Miss A. Woodward, Miss E. Bardsan, Miss K. Woodward, Miss E. Bardsan, Miss K. Woodward, Miss S. Woodward, Mrs. French, Miss Hyde, Miss S. Woodward, Mrs. French, Mrs. Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Byrnes, Dr. Ray, Dr. C. Woodward, Dr. A. Bilho-ffer, Dr. Pierson, Mr. F. A. Richmond, Mr. E. G. Smith, Mr. G. Amour and Mr. W. Vaughn.

Theatrical Employees Dining. ical Theatrical Association was held at Uhlendorff' Casino. The members comprise the different artisans at work at the theatres. Delegations from Philadelphia, Beston, Baitimore and other cities were present. Specifies were made by Jas. McCurdie, J. F. Miller, B. J. Forman, F. J. Basset, J. G. Williams, Thomas Gossman, Robert Cutter, Dave Reed, Fernant Salomon, Michael Brady, Tom Reynol is, Issy Woods and Joe Logan. Bouquets and set pieces were sent by the several thestre managers.

Death of Henry H. Van Dyck. Henry H. Van Dyck, President of the American

Safe-Deposit Company, died yesterday at his house, 5 Spencer place, Brooklyn. Mr. Van Dyck was bora at Kinderhook, N. Y., in 1809. In early life he was a journalist and politician. He had been in succession State superintendent of Public Instruc-tion, Superintendent of the State Hanking Depart-ment, Assistant United States Treasurer at New York, and Provident of the Eric Transportation. York and President of the Eric Transportatio Company. He will be buried at Albany to-morrow

The names of four of the best scholars in Pri-mary School 23, and which should have appeared in the Roll of Merit in last Saturday's EVENING WORLD, did not reach us till late last evening They are: Class I.—Mabel Gebhardt, 250 W. 1284 st.; Stili-man Randati, 305 W. 127th st. Class 2.—Josie Müller, 2233 sth ave.; Bertie Brown, 242 W. 124th

Distress After Eating

Is one of the many desagreeable symptoms of dyspepsia.

Headactie, treatibure, sour stomach, familiess and ca-prictious appetite are also caused by this very widespread and growing disease. Hood's Barasparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves the headache and cures the most obstinat cases of dyspopsia.

Hood's Sarasparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for "A Hoop of Gold" was well presented at | 65. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Mr. Wrinkfield rose with a prodigious yawn, turned down the gas and locked the china closet door on the outside.

Then he went upstairs, thinking the silver as quite safe in the closet and little dream-ig of the other valuable that was incarcer-ted there.

The next morning, just as Mr. Wrinkfield was taking in the morning paper, little Bar-bara came to him.
"Oh. sir." said she, "I think there's a burglar in the china closet. Such a groaning burglar in the china closet. Such a groaning and shricking as there is there."

"But it's locked," said Mr. Wrinkfield.

"And I've got the key in my pocket "

"Then they're locked in, sir," said little Barbara, as pale as a ghost. "Oh, sir, the noise is perfectly awful. Won't you please come and listen for yourself, sir ?

Mr. Wrinkfield got a revolver and the kitchen poker, and thus armed proceeded to unlock the closet.

kitchen poker, and thus armed proceeded to unlock the closet.

There, crouched up in a corner, with a pocket-handkerchief pressed to her face, sat Miss Patty Pry, the victim of a sharp attack of neuralgia in the jawbone.

"Hallo!" shouted Mr. Wrinkfield, scarcely able to believe his own eyes. "Miss Pry!"

"I was locked in by mistake," said Miss Patty, between the jerks of pain. "Please let me out!"

Sen. Muciver Phe One of the Pourteel Battle Flags to Col. Ochiltree. Act I .- Café of the Hoffman House. Four gentlemen seated at a table. A bottle of champagne and four glasses before them. "Tom Ochiltree is a queer chap," said one of the quartet. "Who is he, anyhow, and where did he get the title of colonel?"

COMEDY AT THE HOFFMAN HOUSE.

where did he get the title of colonel?"

"The newspaper boys gave him a distinguished handle to his name," replied one of the party. "He is a colonel by journalistic brevet. He would be a good colonel if he could ride a white horse and have a regiment of red-headed soldiers."

"Why, I thought Tom Ochiltree was a rebel officer, and had earned his spurs while fighting for the South. Is there any doubt about his having fought in the Southern army?"

army?"

"Ha, ha, ha,"and three men who were seated at the table began puffing viciously at their cigars. "He didn't fight for the South," ejaculated one of the Ha, ha, fellows. "As I remarked before, it is a rollows. "As I remarked before, it is a rollows." anuce of the newspaper boys who frequent this place."

Acr II.—Gen. Henry Ronald MacIver. a soldier of fortune, who has fought under fourteen flags, seated at a table within hearing distance of the gentlemen, overhears the remarks about Col. Ochiltree, jumps up and with a martial tread confronts the four.

"Gentlemen," he remarked in his usual with a martial tread confronts the four.

"Gentlemen," he remarked in his usual quiet and suave manner, "I beg your pardon for intruding myself upon you. I do not know who you are, but I have heard you make mention of the name of Col. Thomas P. Ochiltree, and I must say, with all due respect to you as strangers, that you are mistaken in your opinion regarding him. Allow me, please, to say in his absence, that what you have asserted is totally at avariance with truth. Gentlemen, I had the distinguished honor of serving as a Confederate soldier, and I can bear testimony that Col. Ochiltree was a Southern officer, and that his record as a gallant soldier and a perfect gentleman cannot be impeached. Gentlemen, I can give further explanation if it need be necessary. Col. Ochiltree may arrive here at any mo-Col. Ochiltree may arrive here at any mo-ment, and perhaps he can himself prove that you have through ignorance or prejudice maligned him."

from a table.
"I guess it is time to go up town," said

"That's so," chorused three.

PETE.

MADISON SQUARE THEATRE, MADISON SQUARE THEATRE... Sole Manager

Mr. A. M. P. ALMER... Sole Manager

Evenings at 8.39. Saturday matines at 2.

Tribuse... 'Entirely successing."

"HEART Times... 'Spirited and entertaining."

HEART Spirited and entertaining."

HEARTS.," World... 'Strong in comedy."

Journal... 'A rose of laughter...

" SEATS THREE WEERS IN AUVANOR.

ASINO, BROADWAY AND MITH ST,
Evenings at 8. Matines Saturday at 2.
NEARLY 700 PERFORMANCES.

UNION SQUARE THEATRE, J. M. HILL MET.

Every evening at 8, 15. Saturday matines at 2. THE MOST ATTRACTIVE PLACE IN NEW YORK to spend a delightful afternoon and evening FOR 50 CENTS,

BATTLE OF GETTYSBURG.

NIBLO'S.
Reserved Seats, Orchostra Circle and Balcony, 50c,
THE GREAT ENGLISH MELODRAMA.

A RUN OF LUCK.

FIGH AVENUE THEATRE.

FIGH AVENUE THEATRE.

DAUGHTER OF THE REGISTENT DYSCHEMINGS, DAUGHTER OF THE REGISTENT DYSCHEMINGS, With ZELIE DE LUSSAN and BOSTON IDEALS.

Wedneddy and Friday Evening. "CARMEN."

Thursday Evening. "MARTHA."

Sauriday Matines. "THE BOHLMIAN GIRL."

Under the personal direction of Mr. HENRY E. ABBE TWO GRAND MATINEES, WED., JAN. 25, AT 3; WED., FEB. I, AT 4. Seats now on sale. Weber Grand Plano used. 14 H ST. THEATRS. COR. 6TH AVE.
Mathages Wednesday and Saturday.
in THE DEACON'S DAUGHTER.
Gallery, 26. Reserved, 38c. 50c. 75c. 61 and 61.50.
XEXT WEEK, MOLLIERA.

BLIOU BOPERA HOUSE, ILTH TIME. THE CORSAIR.

NEXT WEEK, MODJESKA.

BUELS BURLESQUE COMPANY
THE GORGEOUS PRODUCTIONOP
THE CORSAIR.

MATINEES WED. AND SAT. AT 2

MAZULM PANTOMIME ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

STANDARD THEATRE. BROADWAY & 33D ST.
Styrs at 2. Mai. Sat.at 2.
Confirmed Success
Of the Picturesque Dysma.
By STEELE MACKAYE.

THEATER COMIQUE 12540 st., bet, 3d & Lox, aver. in his new and successful Comedy, LITTLE PUCK. Jan. 30—Lost in New York. Matinee Saturday,

LYCEUM THEATRE. THE WIFE

The little wife flew into her husband's arms.

"Dear Charles," she sobbed, "I couldn't sleep for thinking Pd set spies on you. And I'll never, never, never do it again."

"There's been nobody here but rats and mice and black beetles," said Miss Patty, behind her pocket-handkerchief. "And if Pd known you were such a weak, poor-spirited thing, Mary Wrinkfield, I would never have offered to help you."

"I want no more of your help," said Mrs. Wrinkfield, with a spark of courage. "Get a husband of your own if you want to play the spy and eavesdropper."

Miss Pattie Pry went home in a rage and didn't speak to Mrs. Wrinkfield for three weeks.

'To be sure," said she, "Mr. Wrinkfield did not give a bachelor's supper that night, but it wasn't my fault. And for Mary to be so ungrateful, too, after the neuralgia I got in that damp closet, looking after her concerns."

While Mr. Wrinkfield's verdict is served her right; she got a spy's res asligned him."

ACT HI, AND LAST. —Four gentlemen arise

AMUSEMENTS.

HABRIGAN'S PARK THEATRE.

M. W. HANLEY

MR. CONTINUOUS SUCCESS OF

MR. EDWARD HARRIGAN'S

MR. EDWARD HARRIGAN'S DAVE BRAHAM and me Popular Grenetra. WEDNESDAY - MATINEF - SATURDAY.

NEARLY 700 PERFORMANCES.
The greatest of all Comic Opera Successes, ERMINIE.
RECEIVED WITH ROARS OF LAUGHTER. autiful costumes, appointments, effe

BSON THE THE CRANE. HENRIETTA.

UNION SQUARE. 4TH AVE. AND 19TH ST.

DOCKSTADER'S, B'WAY, BET. STH A 20TH STS.

Evenings, MINSTRELS, 2.30,
BILLY RICE, ENGAGED, WILL SOON APPLAR.

NUBLOS.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.

Reserved Seats, Orchestra Circle and Ralcony, 50c, WEDNESDAY - MATINEE - ATURDAY.
OLIVER RYRON in the INSIDE TRACK.
Next Week-FANNY DAVENPORT as FEDGRA.
Next Week-FANNY DAVENPORT as FEDGRA.
Unique Lecture on 3 STRANGE CITIES.

METROPOLITAN OPERA-HOUSE,

GOTO POOLE'S THEATRE AND SER A HOOP OF COLD.

MATINEES, MON., WED., THURS., SAT.

H. R. JACOBN'S 3D AVE. THEATRE.

HER ATON'S MENT.

Jan. 30. The bright little star
CORLINNE IN AROADIA.

STAR THEATRE.
SEVENINGS AT 8. SATURDAY MATINER AT 2.
MIC-TA'S ER AND VALIGHN.
CHECK 441 OR, TOBOGGANING.
Seata 26c., 50c., 70c. and 61.

TONY 3 HOURS OF GOOD SHOWS.
PASTOR'S. SHOWS AT STAR THE STAR OF THE STAR

L'ABBE CONSTANTIN.

At the same moment there was a turmoil on the stairs—Mrs. Wrinkfield and the babies returned by early train.

The little wife flew into her husband's